

25 years of caring at Sacred Heart

Nursing Home Crosspatrick

Sacred Heart Nursing Home, Crosspatrick, county Kilkenny is celebrating its 25th birthday this year.

When owners, Seán and Theresa Quinn opened the door of their farmhouse to care for a local gentleman 35 years ago little did they know that it would be the start of a successful business that would develop to meet the expanding needs of the local community.

Sacred Heart is unique to other nursing homes as it is a family run nursing home with the owners living in the adjacent premises.

Seán and Theresa are delighted to have their daughters working alongside them, with Kay Finn in the role of Director of Nursing and Orla Henderson acting as senior Occupational Therapist and Operations Manager.

The home is located in a beautiful rural setting close to the Laois and Tipperary borders with wonderful country views.

Sacred Heart Nursing Home has always adopted a holistic approach to care promoting the health and happiness of each resident.

Residents can expect their quality of life to be enhanced by the provision of a happy, comfortable and secure environment.

A sense of homely comfort and ease creates the welcoming warmth and friendliness of Sacred Heart that is cherished by all.

Initially operating as a residential home, the addition of 24 hour professional nursing care, and an extended enhanced building, enabled nursing home registration on February 14 1994 – a proud day for the Quinn family.

Seán and Theresa continued to develop the potential of the home, with further extensions in 2009 and 2018.

The most recent and elaborate extension was seamlessly added to the original building by Terry Brennen and Henderson Construction.

The nursing home now boasts ensuite single bedrooms, sharing rooms for those who prefer to share, a large reception area, relaxing lounges, dining rooms, dementia friendly enclosed gardens, staff facilities, smoking area and a new oratory.

The Quinns would like to acknowledge all those who have lived and live in Sacred Heart and the staff who have

Sacred Heart Nursing Home staff who enjoyed the celebration on Sunday cared for them over the last 25 years.

To celebrate this milestone Sacred Heart Nursing Home hosted a birthday party last Sunday, March 3 with refreshments and live music.
